Dear DNP Members,

DNP is pleased to offer a limited number of travel grants to encourage graduate student participation in the APS April Meeting to be held in Denver, Colorado, April 13-16, 2019. The APS April Meeting provides an excellent opportunity for graduate students in nuclear physics to present their research, to interact with potential employers, and to hear about advances in a broad range of physics topics.

To promote nuclear physics graduate student participation, the DNP is offering a limited number of travel awards consisting of $400 — based upon merit and need.

In order to be eligible, students must:

- Have submitted an abstract (deadline January 11, 2019)
- Plan to present a talk at the April Meeting
- Complete the application process by Tuesday, January 29
- Have their research advisor submit a letter of support

For more information and to apply, please visit the DNP website.

Best regards,

Ken Hicks
