

3rd INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON NUCLEAR AND PARTICLE PHYSICS
WITH CEBAF AT JEFFERSON LAB
October 3rd to 8th, 2010, Dubrovnik, Croatia
SECOND CIRCULAR
August 2010

1. About the Conference

This is the second announcement of the 3rd International Conference on Nuclear and Particle Physics (NAPP 2010) organized by Jefferson Lab, NCCU, and Ruder Boskovic Institute in Dubrovnik, Croatia, from October 3rd to October 8th, 2010.

It will take place at the IMPORTANNE RESORT, a hotel complex located alongside the Adriatic Sea and close to the historic center of Dubrovnik.

The conference continues a series held previously in 1998 and 2003 and as in the previous years will cover a wide variety of subjects:

- Overview of the experimental program at JLab
- Research program at European Facilities
- Theory of hadronic structure
- Weak Interactions
- Precision Measurements
- Electron Scattering
- Heavy Nuclei
- Nuclear and Hypernuclear Physics
- Few Body Systems

The Conference will include:

- Invited plenary talks
- Selected contributed talks
- Poster presentations

The plenary speaker program is almost ready and it will appear soon on the web page that also includes other updated information about the Conference and the latest news.
