

Thank You

To all my friends and co-workers who have been so very supportive during my time of grief, I thank you all.

I am overwhelmed with greatfulness for all of your kind words and expressions of condolences. Your monetary contribution was very well used and very much appreciated, as were the visits, special tasks, phone calls some of you took on. (you know who you are). And with all of that said -- I say Thank you to the "guys & dolls" of the Cryogenics & Electrical Engineering groups. Sincerely, Tonya

---